

Many Honor Memory Of Thos. D'Arcy McGee

Foregather at Ottawa From All Parts of Continent—Banquet is Presided Over by the Hon. Chas. Murphy—Many Prominent Speakers.

OTTAWA, April 13—From every part of North America came people of Irish blood to celebrate in Ottawa today the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Thomas D'Arcy McGeer, who began his career as a revolutionary and ended it as a champion of empire and one of the fathers of Canadian Confederation. Within a hughle call of the spot where, in 1868, McGeer was assassinated by an Irish revolutionary, a year after he had helped to launch a Canada pledged to British allegiance, and a few minutes after he had re-

The gathering was presided over by Hon. Charles Murphy, Canadian Minister of Justice, who said that the McGuinty family, now five hundred people assembled at a banquet which has been planned by Canadian Irishmen for years to mark the McGuinty centenary. Governor-General Baron Byng, the leaders of Canadian politics today, a representative lawyer from New York, a Chief Justice Latchford of Ontario, and the senior scion of the McGuinty family, addressed the gathering.

Attended Poor Woman
The Scierri woman arrived in Int Gilles in November. She was tending a poor woman named Marie Audouard, who died in December after terrible sufferings.

Mme. Audouard's room with her other-in-law, a man named Rosagnol. On Christmas Day, Mr. and Mrs. Chapelle, who ran a grocery store and were friends of Mlle. Escalier, came to the Chapelles and her brother-in-law lower, Rosagnol. By these deaths the police credit the woman with admitting she obtained 300 francs.

Ahern hit or group. If they took it, said most of the Progressives, they must accept representation on the other committees on a like basis. This would be a severe blow to the Gingers who hold 10 seats on the banking committee as well as large representation on other standing committees.

The Gingersites gained their end. They have one representative on the Petersen committee. But the trouble is far from being at an end. The Progressives have been deeply stirred by what they consider to be the selfishness and disloyalty of their erstwhile colleagues. At the next caucus, the possibility of an excellent
